

Ecclesiastical Trust Declaration (Abstract)

Date: July 18, 2025

I, Jonathan Daniel Clements, Trustee of The Clements Private Trust, by divine authority and private ecclesiastical capacity, hereby declare the establishment and operation of this trust as a lawful private ecclesiastical trust, not subject to statutory, commercial, civil, or municipal jurisdiction.

This trust is created for the preservation and lawful administration of all assets, interests, and rights of the living man, his family, and any spiritual dependents, under natural law, canon law, and divine ordinance. It is established and maintained in private equity for the benefit of its grantor and beneficiaries.

This trust is irrevocable, ecclesiastical in origin, and administered according to divine law. It operates outside any legal fiction, corporate body, or commercial contract. Its jurisdiction is ecclesiastical, private, and sacred.

Trust Name: The Clements Private Trust
Trust Seal: DOMUS DE CLEMENTS
Trustee: Jonathan Daniel Clements
Office: Private and ecclesiastical domain

This abstract serves as lawful notice of the existence, intent, and jurisdictional position of the trust. No consent is granted to mischaracterize, diminish, or presume authority over this trust or its trustee. All rights are expressly reserved without prejudice per UCC 1-308.

Let this serve as declaration and rebuttal to any contrary presumption.

Respectfully submitted and sealed,

Jonathan Daniel Clements
Trustee, The Clements Private Trust
DOMUS DE CLEMENTS (Seal)
